To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to wholeheartedly recommend Sal Torre for any opportunity or position he may be pursuing. As the founder of Linear Labs, I had the distinct pleasure of witnessing Sal's exceptional contributions and expertise firsthand.

Sal served as a senior embedded software engineer at Linear Labs and played a pivotal role in our technological advancements. His proficiency in developing vehicle and motor control embedded software for golf carts and e-bikes was exemplary. What truly sets Sal apart is his remarkable ability to grasp both the technical intricacies and the broader business implications, a rare talent that significantly elevated our projects.

Moreover, Sal's dedication, innovation, and meticulous approach to problem-solving were consistently evident in his work. I have always been impressed by his capacity to navigate complex challenges with a strategic mindset, delivering solutions that aligned perfectly with our company's goals and vision.

I hold Sal in high regard not just for his technical prowess but also for his leadership potential. I have personally noted his exceptional qualities that indicate a bright future, whether as an individual contributor or leading a team. I firmly believe that Sal has the acumen and drive to excel in any capacity he chooses.

Having witnessed Sal's contributions and impact firsthand, I have the utmost confidence in his abilities and potential. He would be a valuable asset to any team or organization, bringing a unique blend of technical expertise, business understanding, and an unwavering commitment to excellence.

I wholeheartedly endorse Sal and am more than willing to discuss his qualifications and contributions in further detail. Please feel free to contact me at bhunstable@linearlabsinc.com if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Brad Hunstable
